

Bachelor of Arts in English

The English Language Major in the Bachelor of Arts Degree prepares students for careers in a multilingual and multicultural world, which uses English as its lingua franca. Emphasis is given to the development of both oral and written language skills. Students are immersed in an English environment and are able to develop the skill of ‘thinking’ in English. Graduates find employment in academic, business, legal and other fields that demand high levels of English proficiency.

DEGREE STRUCTURE AND REQUIREMENTS FOR GRADUATION

For the BA (English)(International) degree, 136 credit points are required comprising more than 47 different courses; 33 courses (96 credit points) focus on specialized studies in the discipline, while the balance (34 credit points) relate to general studies. Of the 33 specialist courses, 20 courses (59 credit points) are core studies on English Language or closely related studies, while 13 courses (37 credit points) focus on a particular area of English Language studies, which comprises the emphasis. Orientation to Higher Education courses and Professional Development courses, which do not count for credit, may also be required.
